PREFACE

1180235

BIOGRAPHICAL AND HISTORICAL MEMOIRS OF MISSISSIPPI was one of a series of such works published by the Goodspeed Publishing Company of Chicago late in the nineteenth century. The Mississippi work was released in two volumes in 1891. These books probably contain more genealogical material relating to Mississippi families than can be found in any other single publication.

More than 25,000 individual names are mentioned in the Goodspeed Biographical Memoirs. No complete index has ever been available insofar as we have been able to discover. Although the books are apparently in the very rare category, they are to be found in a number of public and school libraries and some are no doubt still in private hands.

This index has been carefully compiled with every effort made to include all names found in the biographical sketches. No effort has been made to include any names from the historical section of the two volumes. This will have to be a separate work.

Each name is indexed to identify volume and page number. For instance a listing followed by 1-455 indicates that this person is mentioned in volume 1, page 455. It will be noticed that in many cases the same name is listed several times in succession ; sometimes ditto marks are used. The indexed references may be to the same person or to different persons with the same name. If it could be determined definitely that the references are to the same person, ditto marks were used. If it appeared that the references are to different people with the same name each listing was spelled out. It was found that identical names were frequently given to cousins of the same generation or to nieces, nephews, or grandchildren of the original bearer of the name. Women are indexed only by their maiden names in most cases. Where maiden names are not given in the text, the marriage names are indexed. Individuals mentioned in the text without christian names being given are indexed by title: Capt., Col., Maj., Mr., Miss , Mrs.

Names are spelled in the index exactly as they are spelled in the original text. There are undoubtedly duplications of listings under different spellings.

It is hoped that this index will be of value to those wishing to obtain information from the Goodspeed Mississippi Memoirs.
